

Canadian Parks and Recreation Association Harry Boothman Bursary Application/Follow Up Forms

The Canadian Parks and Recreation Association (CPRA) is the national voice on the social, health, economic, community and environmental benefits of parks and recreation. Membership includes the 13 provincial and territorial parks and recreation associations and their extensive networks of service providers in over 90% of Canadian communities.

Background:

Harry Boothman was the Parks Supervisor for the City of Calgary and was a longtime supporter and Board member of the Canadian Parks and Recreation Association. This Harry Boothman Bursary was established to honour his contribution to the parks and recreation sector and his belief in the need for actions that support the continued development of the field. Establishing this bursary, in support of Professional Development within the sector, is a tribute to Harry's vision and dedication.

Purpose:

To provide financial assistance to individuals in their pursuit of professional development opportunities in the parks and recreation field.

Applicant Eligibility Criteria:

Applications will be accepted from Parks and Recreation practitioners with a minimum of five (5) years' experience and currently working full-time in the sector.

Applicants that demonstrate self-help in the form of a financial contribution will be given preference.

Project Eligibility Criteria:

Professional upgrading programs, practical research projects, study tours, seminars and conferences of a national or international nature will be acceptable. The Bursary will be awarded based on the personal and professional merit of the applicant's proposed development program. Submissions that show a strong link to the CPRA Professional Development Program are encouraged.

Professional development opportunities must be completed between July 1 and June 30 of the application year. Retroactive Professional Development opportunities will not be supported.

Unsuccessful applicants do not have the opportunity to appeal decisions of the CPRA Harry Boothman Bursary Review Committee.

A completed and signed CPRA Harry Boothman Bursary Application Form (attached) must accompany the application. Funding is contingent on receipt of Follow Up Report (attached).

Deadline for Submissions:

March 31 of each year. Up to two (2) bursaries, in the amount of $1,000, each can be awarded each year.

Selection Process:

All applications should be submitted by mail to:

*CPRA Harry Boothman Bursary
c/o the Saskatchewan Parks and Recreation Association
#100 - 1445 Park Street
Regina, Saskatchewan S4N 4C5*

Or, electronically to: khouse@spra.sk.ca

All individuals will receive confirmation, via e-mail, identifying that their application has been received. If, within five working days of submission, you have not received confirmation, contact the Saskatchewan Parks and Recreation Association at 306-780-9389.

Applications will be reviewed by the CPRA Harry Boothman Bursary Review Committee and all applicants will be informed regarding the status of their request no later than June 15 of the application year. Professional Development opportunities must be completed between July 1 and June 30 of the application year.

Follow up and Payment:

Deadline for submission of the follow up report is within three (3) months of the completion date of the Professional Development opportunity. Payment of the Bursary will be provided upon receipt of each of the following requirements:

- Final follow up report
- Proof of successful completion of the Professional Development opportunity
- Copies of receipts for all applicable expenditures

Approved applicants that do not use the funds must re-apply at the next application date.
