

Nominees for 2022 SPRA Board of Directors

Keith Comstock

Position: Director at Large

Keith graduated from Recreation Technology in 1979 and joined Saskatchewan's public service soon after. His career included many years of community recreation development work and stints as the province's lead on the cultural industries file, manager of Legislation and Regulation, and as Executive Director of Strategy and Sector Relations.

He was Assistant Deputy Minister of Government Relations from 2011 to 2019 - responsible for Community Planning, Northern Municipal Services, Municipal Infrastructure/Finance, and Advisory Services/Municipal Relations.

After retiring, Keith joined the Johnson Shoyama Graduate School of Public Policy. He is active in providing executive education and also developed a 3-day governance course designed for municipal leaders.
