

Privacy policy

Privacy and confidentiality

The Saskatchewan Parks and Recreation Association (SPRA) respects the privacy of every individual who uses this website, registers for the interactive features offered on this website, or signs up to interact with us through social media channels.

Any personal information you provide to the Saskatchewan Parks and Recreation Association through this website or social media channels will be used only for the purposes of conducting internal market research or contacting you (with your permission) to share news.

The Saskatchewan Parks and Recreation Association does not share personal information obtained through our website or social media channels with any third parties, except with persons who are contracted to administer our information technology requirements and who agree to comply with our policies and requirements for the privacy and confidentiality of personal information.

The Saskatchewan Parks and Recreation Association will not use or disclose any personal information for purposes other than those generally identified above. For example, we may use your personal information to send you a prize or inform you of a particular promotional event, provided that permission has been granted. SPRA will not disclose personal information to other companies unless you advise us that you want us to share your information with them.

The Saskatchewan Parks and Recreation Association has adopted security safeguards appropriate for the sensitivity of the information on this website to protect any personal information you may supply.

For more information, please contact SPRA at 1-800-563-2555, or (306) 780-9231.
