

Saskatchewan Parks and Recreation Association 2024 Future Leaders Scholarship Program

The Saskatchewan Parks and Recreation Association (SPRA) is committed to supporting the next generation of recreation and parks leaders, and is focused on growing diversity, perspective, and contributions in the industry.

The SPRA Future Leaders Scholarship will support a diverse group of talented Saskatchewan youth to thrive academically and professionally. We believe everyone has a right to an education, and we are committed to providing those experiencing barriers to education the opportunity to apply for scholarship funding to advance their education/training in the field of recreation and parks.

Concept/Intent:

- To provide post-secondary funding for youth (ages 18–30) experiencing barriers to educational attainment.
- To support the training of youth as professionals that will advance parks and recreation priorities in Saskatchewan.
- To ensure the recreation industry remains a relevant and attractive employment option.
- Highlight the successes of a diverse group of future parks and recreation leaders.

Scholarship Amount:

Up to $3,000 per approved application.

Deadline:

Friday, March 29, 2024, at 5 p.m.

Submissions:

Scholarship Interview Questions

In addition to the above application form, scholarship applicants are required to submit answers to the following interview questions:

Please answer each of the following questions:

Per question: minimum 100 words, max 350 words

Personal motivation:

- What have been your personal motivations for pursuing an education in this field and what are your career goals for the five to ten years following completion of your education?

Knowledge of the industry:

- What do you see as opportunities for growth and development for the recreation and parks industry in Saskatchewan?

Barriers to career development:

- What barriers have you faced in achieving your educational and career pursuits and what can be done to ease these challenges?

Impact of scholarship:

- Please let us know why you should be chosen to receive this scholarship. How will it impact your life?

Responses to the scholarship interview questions can be submitted as a written, audio or video file. Acceptable formats include Microsoft Word (or equivalent), PDF, MP3, or MP4.

Alternative submission options may be considered on a case-by-case basis. Email scholarship@spra.sk.ca to request accommodations.

Accompanying photographs, in JPEG format, including a recent photo of the applicant and photos that support the application are highly encouraged.

Approved submissions may be used by SPRA to contribute to content on SPRA's communication platforms, including the SPRA Blog, website, e-newsletter and social media accounts. Quotations and photographs shared are intended to recognize future leaders in Saskatchewan's recreation and parks industries and highlight the value and strength that a diversity of representation brings.

Credit will be given to the author. SPRA reserves the right to make minor edits to the work. Approved applications and interview questions may be scheduled for sharing between April 2024 and June 2025.

Submission Checklist

Use this checklist to confirm you have everything ready to submit:

- Application Form
- Proof of enrollment or syllabus for future semester
NOTE: If proof of enrollment for a future semester is not available at the time of submission, a course syllabus or similar can be submitted. Funds for approved scholarships will only be released when proof of enrollment is provided.
- Scholarship Interview Questions
- Recent photograph(s) (encouraged, but not required)
