

Funding Sources for Communities in Bloom

Communities in Bloom (CiB) initiatives can obtain funding support through:

- Local sponsorship
- Municipal support
- Private donations
- Grant programs
- Corporate sponsorships
- Fundraising events

In-kind support can also be obtained and is equally as valuable. In-kind support provides services or materials in place of cash support, which can be extremely helpful for this type of community program.

Many funding initiatives exist to support your efforts, including:
