

The Sask Recreation Awards – Eligibility and Terms

The Sask Recreation Awards pay tribute to the outstanding contributions of individuals, communities, and agencies who have improved the quality of life for others through recreation in Saskatchewan.

Please review the following Eligibility Requirements and Terms and Conditions prior to submitting a nomination for one of the award categories, which include: the Community Wellbeing, Leadership Excellence, and Volunteer Champion awards.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Nominees can be an individual, community, municipality, group, or organization from any sector (for example: administrators, public health professionals, volunteer agencies or committees, not for profit groups, Provincial Recreation Associations, social services, etc.).
- All nominations are to be submitted online; hard copies will not be accepted.
- Self-nominations will not be permitted.
- Nominators or nominees do not have to be members of SPRA.
- Nominees can only be nominated once per award category.
 - Multiple submissions for a nominee under the same award category will not be accepted.
 - Nominations must provide a detailed and clear description of why the nominee is deserving of the chosen award.

Terms and Conditions:

- All nominations received will remain confidential.
- All award nominations must be received by the deadline. Incomplete or late nominations will not be accepted.
- Nominations selected as award recipients will be contacted approximately 4 weeks after the nomination deadline. Both the nominee and nominator will be contacted
- It is up to the discretion of the Awards Adjudication Committee to determine if any of the nominees are selected as award recipients. In circumstances where the nominees do not meet the criteria for a particular award category, no recipient shall be selected for the award year.
- The decisions of the Awards Adjudication Committee are final.
- SPRA reserves the right to use all nominated submissions in marketing and communications for promotions and/or recognition purposes.
- All nominations will be kept for a maximum of 2 years and SPRA may recognize those who were nominated in other capacities, if not selected as an award recipient.

All nominations must be accepted by no later than 4pm on May 30, 2024.
